

Savor Spain

IN RIBERA DEL DUERO & BURGOS

Ribera del Duero, early Spring

This 4 day/3 night package self-drive package encompasses the wine region of Ribera del Duero and the beautiful city of Burgos. Just two hours north of Madrid, this adventure makes a perfect pre or post add-on to a stay in Spain's magnificent capital city.

Ribera del Duero is the birthplace of one of the most acclaimed Designations of Origin for wine, and is dedicated almost entirely to the production of red wine from the Tempranillo grape. Burgos is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is situated in the Pilgrim's Road to Santiago de Compostela. The city boasts a masterpiece of Spanish Gothic architecture: the Cathedral of Burgos. The Museum of Human Evolution was opened here in 2010 and its foundation is based on the archeological site of Atapuerca located nearby. Burgos gastronomy is enriched by a great variety of local products: fresh sheep's cheese, alubias de Ibeas (dried beans), game meat, and Morcilla de Burgos, a spicy black pudding. Suckling lamb is baked in a wood-fired oven and suckling pig are not to be missed.
